

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DOUG ISENBERG CO-CHAIRS PROGRAM ON “COMPLEX INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY LICENSING”

ATLANTA, June 8, 2005 – Attorney Doug Isenberg, founder of GigaLaw.com and The GigaLaw Firm, is serving as program co-chair – with Michael Bishop of BellSouth Intellectual Property Corporation – of a program on “Complex Intellectual Property Licensing” on June 22 in Atlanta. The program is organized by Law Seminars International of Seattle.

The all-day program, at the Sheraton Atlanta Hotel, includes seminars on “Negotiating and Drafting Licensing Agreements,” “Content Licensing,” “Trademarks and Branding,” and more. In addition to co-chairing the program, Isenberg is scheduled to speak on the topic of “Intellectual Property Management Strategies.”

The program includes lawyers from law firms and corporations in Atlanta, Boston, Chicago and New Orleans.

For more information about the program, or to register, visit <http://www.lawseminars.com> or contact Doug Isenberg at disenberg@GigaLawFirm.com.

The program has been approved for 7 Continuing Legal Education (CLE) credits in Georgia.

Isenberg practices intellectual property, technology and Internet law at The GigaLaw Firm in Atlanta (<http://www.GigaLawFirm.com>), where he also serves as an adjunct professor at Georgia State University College of Law. He has advised clients on copyright and trademark licensing issues for nine years. In addition, Isenberg is a world-renown authority on Internet law and serves as a domain name panelist for the World Intellectual Property Organization, the largest arbiter of domain name disputes, based in Geneva.
